

(SOME) 2008/09 High School Differences From FIFA

Stop clock for PK, cards, goals, any referee stoppage

40 min half - 10 min break - no OT

EBAL JV games - 35 minutes. MVAL JV - 40 minutes. Frosh - 35 minutes

For Referee stoppage or injury - IFK to team with possession

Substitutions: Prior to any substitution, any sub must have been present at the Official Area prior to the dead ball.

Exception: time between periods, after goals, replacement for injured or carded players.

If present, team may sub on at any Goal Kick, injury or card, their own Corner Kick or own Throw In .

If Team A is subbing on their Throw-in of CORNER KICK, Team B may, also, sub IF their player is at the half way line and ready. If no sub by Team A - No Sub by Team B. NOTE: All subs must have been present at the Official Area prior to the dead ball. (Official Area is at the halfway line.)

Injured player, attended MUST leave the field, including Goalkeepers. (Subs are always allowed for injury, whether attended or not.)

PK is not a substitution opportunity, with the except for cards and injury at that time. Only a carded or injured player, includes GK, may be subbed on Penalty Kick. A Penalty Kick is not a substitution opportunity, Sub may not take the Penalty Kick. On a Penalty Kick, replace a DQ'ed GK with a field player or sub- then remove a field player (except for the following situations.).

Display a Yellow card, followed by a Red card for 1) 2nd Caution, 2) excessive celebration Subs are allowed for these 2 cards.

Coaches are cautioned for first occurrence of players with illegal equipment, players receive the next caution.

Caution - Mandatory departure, subs are optional.

(SOME) 2008/09 High School Differences From FIFA

Warn, then caution for vulgar/profane language not directed at an opponent.

Teams playing short may send a player into the game at any stoppage, with referee approval, unless they are short due to misconduct. If they are short due to misconduct, subs are only allowed at the normal substitution opportunity.

Apparently unconscious player may not reenter without written permission from a doctor..

Splints, Face Mask & casts- MUST have signed medical release in possession of the coach, at the field. Padded Splints & Casts Knee braces with metal must a covering which is manufactured for that purpose.

No jewelry allowed, including earring posts, or body piercings. (Jewelry means any adornment.)

Standard Shinguard requirements apply, plus, if taped, they must be no higher than 2 inches from the ankle.

Disqualify any Subs entering the field to take part in an altercation.

Throw-in which fails to enter the Field Of Play awarded to opponent.

Coaches must submit a roster 5 minutes prior to match.

Coaches & bench personnel may be shown a card.

Do NOT send a disqualified player from the bench area.

Off field misconduct by players or bench personnel - IFK.

If misconduct by bench personnel and can not be identified, the coach will be carded for the offense.

These schools, EBAL & MVAL, require that only a credentialed teacher take over the team in the event that a member of the coaching staff is no longer available. (A JV coach may replace a Varsity coach if necessary) Caution - Mandatory departure, subs are optional.